Linsey Hammon is a Certified Child Life Specialist and Grief Counselor with 25 years of experience in healthcare. Her tender and humorous approach to sensitive topics is refreshing and creates a space where kids, teens, and adults feel safe to discuss their big feelings, share their challenges, and bravely step toward new levels of emotional growth.

Linsey is naturally calm in the face of uncertainty and brings balance to others. As the owner of Lighthouse of Hope (Keller, Texas), Linsey and her team help families find hope, healing, and joy during times of illness, injury, loss, and grief.
